Bungendore Rotary Speech Night

In a recent email from Ms. Tartelin regarding the speech night there were several phrases used that I would like to share with you all. Things like 'development in presentation', 'potential to be an excellent speaker' and 'did (their) sterling best'. These are all things teachers and parents want to hear in regard to their students and children. We were very lucky to have Beryl help the students again.

She provides her time generously and out of the kindness of her heart. Thank you Ms Tartelin for another great year of public speaking.

Small Schools Athletics Carnival

What a fantastic day Friday turned out to be! The sun shone, the birds sang, the students ran, jumped and threw and the ribbons came flowing in for their hard work.

The day would not have been possible without the hard work of some of our parents. Thank you to Paul and Julianne de Ruyter, Martin Payne and Brad Carey.

Congratulations to all the students on a job well done. The 5, 6 and 7 year olds enjoyed their relay races at school and as always looked terribly stylish during the dress-up relay!
