CWA International Day
Once again our local CWA Branch, and in particular Mrs Michelle Robinson, excelled themselves and presented a wonderful International Day focussed on Botswana. Following a welcome and a most interesting talk and question time from this years guest speaker this years award winners were announced.

students from the wider district, having been determined best in our branch area.

Emily Clark 1st Yr 6, Adonis Katrivessis 2nd Yr 6, Jordan Knap 1st Yr 4/5, Gemma Seymour 2nd Yr 4/5, Issac Tubman 1st Yr 2/3, Lachlan Moritz 2nd Yr 2/3, Aislinn Wilson 1st K/1, Amali Warrener

This event also offered the opportunity for our senior class to perform their bucket drumming piece. This was at the invitation of the CWA. As always our students performed brilliantly. In particular the year three students did a great job as this was their first public performance.

All students are looking forward to the challenge of next years project.

2nd K/1. Congratulations to all winners and to every student for their hard work in creating some wonderful pieces of work. Special mention to Emily and Jordan who both were awarded district honours and will have their work displayed and judged against Sausage Sizzle Friday is tomorrow. In last weeks newsletter I spoke about a sausage sizzle for all students who collected 3 turbines during the last two weeks of term. As of today every student at Tarago Public School has achieved this. Therefore all students are invited to attend the sausage sizzle on Friday at lunchtime. There is no cost attached and well done to everyone for demonstrating Participation, Responsibility and Respect not just over the past two weeks but over the whole term.

Have a safe and happy winter break and remember school resumes on Tuesday, 15th July 2014.

Grommitt's Holiday

Each week a hard working student from K/1 is given the opportunity to take Grommitt home and give home a short holiday from school. Last week Oscar was the lucky students and as the photos show both he and Grommitt had a great time. Breakfast, travel, Emily's Birthday party, pony riding and even a new cousin. Then it was time for bed. Thank you Oscar for sharing your adventures with Grommitt.

THE WEATHER HAS TURNED COLD. PLEASE REMEMBER THE OFFICE HAS WARM, SHOWER PROOF JACKETS, IN OUR SCHOOL BLUE, FOR ONLY $25.
