Welcome Back

Welcome back to Mr & Mrs Katen this Friday, I hope they have had a wonderful time and come back refreshed and happy from their long journey.

This is my last week at Tarago P.S., five weeks have flown by. It has been a great experience both as a relieving principal and the teacher of a Years 3 to 6 class. It has been a while since I taught in a small school, but everything came back pretty quickly. My experience would not have been as enjoyable without the support of the other staff. Thank you so much to Mrs Horn, Mrs Nell, Mrs Deaton, Mr Dempsey, Mrs Seymour and Mrs Price, and the person who really runs the school, Mrs Watson. Thank you to all the students in the Year 3 to 6 class who have cooperated to make my time here a pleasure. I look forward to keeping track of your progress and I will definitely stay in touch.

Relieving Principal

News from the Infants Room

On Wednesday K-2 participated in the Department of Education & Communities National Simultaneous Storytime reading of the book The Brothers Quibble. After we read the story we made crowns and door knob hangers. Then we did a big word search. Aislinn tricked Mrs Horn and 'borrowed' her word search to help the year 2 children find the words. Mrs Horn said she would sell Aislinn to the pirates. Aislinn wrote this story "Today Mrs Horn was going to sell me to the pirates, but I was lucky because she would miss me. So, she changed her mind". Aislinn.

News from the Primary Room

This term Year 3-6 are working on an exciting project. The school has been approached by Sydney Ryley from the Tarago progress committee to design murals for a new park in Tarago. We are enjoying researching the Bushranger history of the area. The stories are fascinating and they include much drama surrounding a plan for a major hold up, romance, police arrests, shootings and misunderstandings of epic proportions. We are researching our local history and creating artworks on the subject. Stay tuned for more information about this project.

The children enjoyed listening to the story of Spalding Quibble and his brother Bunny. There was a valuable lesson in the book about tolerance and love. The book has been purchased by the school and will be available to borrow from the school Library.

Is your child making friends at school?

Kids who get on at school tend to be more engaged in learning. Here are some ideas on how to help your child with social skills:
