Stripey The Emu

While the campers are away K-2 and non campers will be attending the highly regarded live performance of Stripey the Emu at the Canberra Theatre. The production is based on the hugely successful, award winning Stripey series of books by WA author, illustrator and artist Wendy Binks.

A permission note is attached to this newsletter.

Absences from School

At the end of last term there were quite a few notes sent home regarding unexplained absences.

The Education Act 1990 requires your child to attend school each day that instruction is provided unless prevented from doing so by sickness or other good reason. The Act requires you to explain your child's absences within seven days of the occurrence. Failure to do so will result in an unjustified absence being recorded.

We have absence booklets available, if you require a booklet, please ask at the office.

More News

News from the Infants Room

We have a few very good students who return their homework every week, and believe it or not, it shows in the progress they are making with their schoolwork. We do not ask the children to do a lot, but a small amount each week makes a huge difference to their learning outcomes. Please help our younger students and assist them each week with their homework, you might find it is a great activity to work on together.

Student Details

To date, we have only had half of the Student Emergency Contact Details Report returned. Please complete and return the Student Emergency Contact Detail Report. If you have misplaced this document please contact Mrs Watson for a replacement. Please carefully read all the details and mark in RED pen any changes that need to be made. Even if there are no changes to be made, please return the form.

Library / Office Upgrade

Work is continuing on the upgrade to our library and office. This has caused a few changes to our school routine. Most notable being the fact that library borrowing can only be maintained at a minimal level. These works should be completed over the coming weeks.
