Assembly

Our first assembly for 2015 will occur this Friday 6th March commencing at 9:30am. All parents, grandparents, aunties, uncles and friends are invited to attend to celebrate the wonderful and productive start students have made to the year. This will be the first assembly students will be presented with our new Merit Awards!

Family Holidays & Travel

From the beginning of 2015, families can no longer apply for an exemption from school for family holidays and travel. Parents/carers are asked to consult with the school about travel during term time and complete an Application for Extended Leave-Travel. The application must be completed before departure for travel.

If the application is approved you will be provided with a Certificate of Leave-Travel.

An application form can be collected from the school office.

Application for Exemption From School

Parents and caregivers may still apply for exemption from school attendance due exceptional circumstances eg health of child, employment in the entertainment industry and participation in elite arts or sporting events.

An exemption form can be collected from the school office.

GCROSS Athletics Carnival

More News

News from the Infants Room

The children have been working on Harmony Day, March 21. This day celebrates Australia's cultural diversity. It's about inclusiveness, respect and a sense of belonging for everyone. Here are some photos of our work so far.

Our next P&C Meeting will be held on Tuesday 10th March at 3.30pm.

This meeting will be the first to discuss the Tarago Arts Festival.

Please come along and share your ideas. This meeting is about gathering ideas for what will be a great event for Tarago and particularly the students at Tarago Public School.

News from the Primary Room

Year 3-6 have been developing their drawing and printmaking skills in preparation for the Tarago Show this weekend. The children have been inspired by the incredible photographs taken at Gallipoli by Charles Ryan. These photos feature in an exhibition at the War Memorial called "A Camera on Gallipoli". The students chose one each to create a drawing and print from. I have been very impressed with the results, considering we are exploring brand new techniques. You can see these works at the Tarago show on the 8th March. ↑→

Aussie Soldier from 1915 meets Young Turk in 2015

Education Kit FREE!

An Education Kit is a valuable educational resource for schools wanting pre or post Gallery visit activities. It also gives schools who don't have the opportunity to see the exhibition the chance to view and explore the works. The kit caters for EYLF and from stages 1 to 6. The kit is available in PDF and hard copy form by request.

Zine creation FREE!

Visiting schools and members of the public are invited to create their own page which will be collated, printed and distributed in the Gallery's WW1 Zine.

Children's Room FREE!

Young children have the opportunity to partake in dramatic play in a recreated WW1 Gallipoli trench. Alternatively older children can complete a postcard, create a page for our WW1 'Zine' or make some poppies for the honour role.

Talks with Jennifer Lamb FREE!

All Friends, Volunteers and members of the public are invited on Thursday 19 March 3-4pm. Jennifer Lamb will talk about William Punch and her writing of his story. The play – William Punch: A Goulburn War Story – will be premiered at Goulburn's Lieder Theatre 9-19 September this year.

For schools:

Jennifer Lamb is happy to provide talks to schools on request. The talk may include:

- > Seeking to empathise with the Aboriginal experience in Australia in the early 1900s – including racial and social attitudes; the lack of rights; the war experience.
- > Imagining a soldier's World War 1 experience and seeking to convey it in a play
- > Researching and writing a local story.
- > William Punch's own story.
